S i r,

Allowances--Tasdik--Karkal Taluk--Karambar village-- Institution No. 341, Kekalaya Mahadev--Payment of arrears.

Kekalaya Mahadev of Karambar village has a tasdik of Rs.12/- per annum which has gone into deposit from fasli 1333 owing to the death of the last trustee Narayana Bhatta.

The Hindu Religious Endowment Board has appointed one Vasudeva Bhatta son of the deceased Narayana Bhatta and Sridhara Rao, the Potel of Shirlal village as joint trustees to the above institution. It is also reported that the institution is in good repair and services were conducted regularly during the period the Tasdik went to deposit. The present trustees appear to have been trying to get a sanad since the death of Narayana Bhatta, but they obtained it only in 1932.

In view of the fact that services were regularly conducted during the period tasdik went to deposit and the institution is in good repair. I recommend that the arrears of the last six years be paid when the institution is readmitted.

Your obedient servant,

Gawne 8/XI

Collector.
